

Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

It is the great honor for us to publish 8th Volume, second issue of Contemporary Educational Researches Journal (CERJ). The journal welcomes original empirical investigations and comprehensive literature review articles focusing on educational issues. The journal is an international peer-refereed journal that promotes the researches in the field of contemporary teaching and learning approaches and theories.

A total number of ten (10) manuscripts were submitted for this issue and each paper has been subjected to double-blind peer review process by the reviewers specialized in the related field. At the end of the review process, a total number of five (4) high quality research papers were selected and accepted for publication.

Aim of this issue is to give the researchers an opportunity to share the results of their academic studies. There are different research topics discussed in the articles. For example, Kvetoslav Bartek David Nocar The use of digital learning objects for effective mathematics instruction. Irina Mihaela Pop and Cosmin-Constantin Baias Communicating human dignity in education (Notes on Romanian education system). El Hassane Touli, Mohammed Talbi and Mohamed Radid The evaluation in the physical sciences in the Moroccan secondary school curriculum: the case of experimental skills. Soumia Tamani, Hafid Sokrat and Mohamed Radid The impact of the type of questions asked in continuous assessment on students' outcomes.

The topics of the next issue will be different. You can make sure that we will be trying to serve you with our journal with a rich knowledge in which different kinds of topics are discussed in 2018 Volume.

I would like to present many thanks to all the contributors who helped to publish this issue.

Best regards,
