

Global Journal of Arts Education

Vol 6, No 2, April (2016)

Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

It is the great honor for us to publish sixth volume, second issue of Global Journal of Arts Education.

Global Journal of Arts Education (GJAE) is an international peer-refereed journal that provides an international form for research in the field of the art and creative education. The journal welcomes from a wide range of theoretical and methodological approaches to research, and encourages submissions from the broader fields of education and the arts that are related with learning and teaching through creative art education.

Classical piano playing, “Leyla and Majnun” love poem, film analysis and refractory studio and pedagogy topics have been included into this issue. The topics of the next issue will be different. You can make sure that we will be trying to serve you with our journal with a rich knowledge in which different kinds of topics are discussed in 2016 Volume.

A total number of twelve (12) manuscripts were submitted for this issue and each paper has been subjected to double-blind peer review process by the reviewers specialized in the related field. At the end of the review process, a total number of five (5) high quality research papers were selected and accepted for publication.

We present many thanks to all the contributors who helped us to publish this issue.

Best regards,
