

<sup>1</sup>Message from Editor in chief

Dear reader,

Thank you for showing interest in the Volume 14 Number 2, March 2022 edition of our World Journal on Educational Technology: Current Issues. The aim of this issue was to present technological and online methods of learning, that resulted from the COVID-19 pandemic. Other topics are included which cover issues that influence education and students. Based on the aim of this issue, 15 papers were selected.

The selected papers were authored by researchers from Kazakhstan, Northern Cyprus, Indonesia, and the Philippines. The selected papers include the following: Formation of speech activity of primary school students in foreign language teaching through technology integration; Mobile learning uses in vocational high school: A bibliometric analysis; Impact of university E-Learning environment on value orientations of students; Digital citizenship in education and its implication; Effects of smartphone utilization on junior high school students' mathematics performance.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to all those who contributed to making this publication a success.

Dear reader, enjoy reading!!

Best Regards,

Prof. Dr. Servet Bayram, Yeditepe University, Turkey

Editor in Chief

---

<sup>1</sup> Address of correspondence: Prof. Dr. Servet Bayram, Yeditepe University, Turkey.

Email address: wjet.editor@gmail.com